

EMPHASIZES FOOD CONTROL'S IMPORT

Hoover Outlines His Plans to Score of Senators at Capital

WILL RETURN FRIDAY

House Leaders Hope to Conclude General Debate Today—Senate Session Brief

GIVES PRICE COMPARISON

WASHINGTON, June 19.—While both branches of congress continued desultory debate on the government's food control bill today, Herbert C. Hoover, food administrator, spent four hours at the capitol emphasizing to a score of senators gathered informally to hear him, the vital importance of the legislation to success in the war.

Under sharp and argumentative questioning by a group headed by Senators Gore, Reed and Vardaman, opposing the legislation Mr. Hoover outlined his plans for conserving the nation's food supply, increasing production and cutting off the excessive profits of speculators. He did not conclude and will return to the capitol on Friday for further examination in an effort to clear up congressional and public misconceptions and hasten action.

The senate had only a brief discussion of the bill and recessed until tomorrow. Senator Chamberlain announced it would be kept continuing before the senate until disposed of, and that senators would be pressed to expedite debate and action.

With but a handful of members attending, house debate continued until late tonight. Opposition there appeared to be waning and leaders hoped to conclude general debate tomorrow, planning then to consider amendments and pass the bill by Friday or Saturday.

Explains Allies' Food Conditions
Food conditions which face the allies and this country were frankly and fully explained by Mr. Hoover. Without government food control he said, success in the war may be imperiled. Such control, to a great degree in actual administration he explained will be voluntary and not enforced—a "mobilization of the spirit of self denial and self sacrifice" in preventing waste of food-stuffs.

That the rationing or other enforced regulation of the American dinner table is proposed was denied by Mr. Hoover. Also he said requisitioning of factories or regulations of wages are not contemplated and that exaction of war profits in distribution of food largely by voluntary co-operation of business interests involved is the prime object of the bill.

Four basic measures of food control planned, Mr. Hoover said are export regulation; control of distribution; including speculation; mobilization of America's men and women in a campaign for economy and against waste; and participation of the states in administration work. Federal commissions to control wheat, sugar, and a few other "prime commodities" by regulation of production, storage, transportation and sale also are contemplated, he said, but instead of injuring farmers as some have claimed, these things will benefit both producers and consumers without curtailment of middlemen's normal and fair profits.

Must Make Up Deficiency
Asserting that the allies' food supply will be 10 per cent deficient even with America's food surplus assisting, Mr. Hoover said the deficiency must be made up by sacrifices abroad and economy here. Saving of six cents a day per capita in this country he declared would save two billion dollars, while a twenty per cent saving in flour would give 100,000,000 bushels more to the allies.

In this connection he told the senators that speculators in flour alone have taken $50,000,000 a month from the American public during the last five months. Senators Gore, Reed and Vardaman plied Mr. Hoover with questions in such fashion that he told them with some emphasis that he had not asked congress to do anything, although he believed the proposed legislation vital to the conduct of the war. The opposing senators contended that the bill would reach into infinite avenues of American life, disturb business, take property without compensation and embark on an enterprise of varied dangers.

Opposition in House Droops
Opposition drooped perceptibly in the house as the debate dragged along today and tonight. Representative Haugen of Iowa, the only member of the agriculture committee to file a minority report against the bill said there would not be fifty negative votes on final passage. He said he would vote for it himself although he would make an effort to restore to the list of necessities shoes and clothing as originally proposed by the administration. Represent-

EXTENDS CLEMENCY TO TWENTY-FOUR PRISONERS

Lowden Acts on Recommendation of Pardon Board

List Includes Alexander Pepper of Chicago Sentenced to Hang—Governor Lowden Denies Pardons or Commutations to Seventy-One Men and Women.

Springfield, Ill., June 19.—Twenty-four prisoners, among them Andrew Pepper of Chicago, who was to hang July 27, were extended executive clemency by Governor Lowden on recommendation of the state board of pardons today. Pepper, convicted of the murder of Christ Deubler, but said to have been of unsound mind will serve a life sentence at Joliet.

At the same time Governor Lowden denied pardons or commutations to seventy-one men and women. In this list was Haldane Clemenson of Chicago, serving a life sentence for the alleged murder of his wife. The report of the pardon board will be the last under the present state government, the new administrative code which abolishes the board being in effect July 1. Those given commutations by Governor Lowden were:

Mary J. Terrem, murder, Montgomery county; Anna Ostrowsky, murder, Saline county; Nancy Brooks colored, murder, Alexander county; Mary Kamp, attempted arson, Kan-kakee county; Harry Daniels, rape, Scott county; Paul Jones, rape, Cook county; Fred Sibley, murder, Christian county; Silas Haword, colored, murder, Pulaski county; George Ford, colored, St. Clair county; Le-Roy Rice, murder, St. Clair county; John Ruckman, murder, Edgar county; Clark Huff, murder, Peoria county.

The 99 year sentence of Fred Mink, sent up from Pike county for murder was commuted to 40 years. James Flannigan and Frank Barney, serving sentences in county jails, were ordered released.

WOMEN PROMISE SUPPORT TO HOOVER

About One Hundred and Fifty Societies Represented at Meeting in Washington.

Washington, June 19.—Heads of the principal women's organizations of the country meeting here today with Herbert C. Hoover, promised their full support for the food administration. About 150 societies were represented.

The world's food situation was put before the women by Mr. Hoover, R. L. Wilbur, president of Leland Stanford University who is serving as temporary chief of the food administration's conservation section and members of the women's committee of the council of national defense. The scheme of organization and the plan for national registration of women as members of the food administration were outlined by Dr. Wilbur and the members of the women's committee. The women are enrolled, bakers, butchers and members of trades having to do with food distribution will be asked to register for service. Dr. Wilbur showed the women's organizations many ways in which large savings of foodstuffs may be made. If the war lasts long enough, he said, Americans may be forced to wear unstarched clothes to preserve the starch supply for food.

ROOKIES SHOULD NOT ACCEPT AUTO RIDES

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., June 19.—"To reserve officers: It would be advisable for such of you who have been in the habit of accepting invitations of young women to ride in their motor cars to decline. This is all to your interest. It is to the benefit of good discipline and good soldiery. It must be kept in mind that every minute must be utilized to promote efficiency. I hope this will be taken to heart."

This order was issued by one of the regular army captains in command of a company of Illinois men training to be officers here. He pointed out that the men are out here to learn to train, to drill, to learn how to lead men. So, he says, every time a well-meaning young lady beckons to some dust-grimed and weary young soldier to take the empty seat beside her she impairs his chances of becoming efficient, for the time is short and every moment must be made to count.

URNS ATTENTION TO MADISON COUNTY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 19.—In an avowed campaign "to free the East Side of the Mississippi from the disorderly places which have long disgraced it" Attorney General Brundage today turned his attention from St. Clair to Madison county. Proceedings were instituted at Edwardsville he said to restrain the operation of the Cottage Grove and Eagle Park resorts on Horse Shoe Lake.

"In all probability" the attorney general stated, "bills will be filed against other unlicensed and disorderly saloons."

WILL TRANSFER FRANCHISE

Dubuque, Ia., June 19.—Because of poor attendance the Dubuque club of the Central Association will be transferred after Thursday according to Manager Hughes. Charles City likely will get the team, the Boone and Emmetsburg have asked for it.

GERMANS WANT FUND TO SUPPLEMENT PENSIONS

COPENHAGEN, via London, June 19.—German newspapers print an initial appeal for the collection of a great national fund to supplement pensions for war cripples and the families of soldiers in the same fashion as widows and other dependents from a fund collected by popular subscription. The government pensions are described as utterly inadequate and instances are cited by figures from the Rhine district where the pension for men with families is only 67 marks.

The Vorwaerts calls it a crying shame and disgrace to appeal to private generosity for the relief which a grateful fatherland should grant adequately from the public treasury.

COUNTESS OCCUPIES STAND IN DIVORCE CASE

Former Chicago Girl Tells Story of Neglect

Finally Wins, from Judge Thomson the Announcement that He is Satisfied She Should Receive Her Decree—Wants to Lose Title Forever

Chicago, June 19.—The Countess Eleanor Patterson Josef Gyzicka, formerly Miss Eleanor Medill Patterson of Chicago was an all day witness in her suit for divorce today, telling a story of neglect and unhappiness on the lonesome Russian estate of her husband that finally won from Judge Charles M. Thomson the announcement that he was satisfied she should receive her decree.

The ancestral estate of the Russian nobleman, which he had described vividly before their marriage in Washington, in 1904, proved to be a tumbledown, ramshackle castle, surrounded by peasants' huts and five miles from a railroad, Countess Gyzicka testified. The imposing array of seventy servants, proved to be a horde of Russian peasant boys and girls, who received no pay but their food and a trifling present at Christmas.

She declared that her husband's life was centered on hunting, drinking and women, that his father had died insane, that the servants lived in constant terror of him and that he had married her solely for her money.

The countess stated that she wished to be known as Mrs. Gyzicka and wanted to lose her title forever. All of her income of $20,000 a year had been used to maintain her titled husband's establishment she continued. "He thought he would get hold of our fortune when he married me," she said, "and he immediately tried to do so, but failed. I had an income of $20,000 a year. Ten thousand I gave him to use and at different times I gave him parts of the other half with which to pay household bills, but he never paid them, and the bills came back to me."

TO COMMISSION ONE TENTH WITHOUT EXAMS

Four Hundred and Sixty Fort Sheridan Men Will Be Made Second Lieutenants in Regular Army.

Fort Sheridan, Ill., June 19.—One tenth of the men who are now training at the officers' reserve corps training camp here will be selected and commissioned second lieutenants in the regular army without the necessity of an examination, it was announced at the camp today. This will make 460 commissions available among the men at the camp. In addition to this 100 will be given opportunity to train for commissions in the quartermaster corps.

These, with the 1300 originally planned to take from the Illinois camp will make a total of 1860 of the 4600 men now in training who will receive commissions for service. The 460 who will be chosen will be assigned to regiments in the regular army, and it is likely, will be among the first to go to France. The 1300 will be selected to drill the new draft army, when it is organized. Their commissions will be for the period of the war while two years provisional commissions will go to those chosen for the regular army. Their continuation in the service at that time will depend upon the extent to which they have made good as officers. High scores were made by the Illinois regiments, which had learned today already. Those who scored the highest scores made 65 points and the lowest 57 out of a possible perfect score of 75.

SECRETARY TRIES TO AVERT STRIKE

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Secretary Wilson of the labor department arranged today to see New York and New Jersey shipbuilders and repair yard men in an effort to avert a strike of their employees who seek a ten per cent advance in wages and improved working conditions. He conferred yesterday with representatives of the men.

Virtually every New York yard and most of the New Jersey plants along the Hudson river are involved. Some of the yards in which the strike is threatened are repairing the seized German vessels, others are at work on new ships and many are engaged in general repair work.

Montevideo, Uruguay, June 19.—President Viera has decided to make a declaration that Uruguay will not regard as a belligerent any American nation at war with nations of another continent.

CLARK PRESENTS MEMORIAL ARCH

More Than a Hundred Congressmen Attend Exercises at Valley Forge

EULOGIZES WASHINGTON

Terms Washington's Headquarters "Most Famous Encampment" on Surface of Globe

DEFENDS CONGRESS

VALLEY FORGE, Pa., June 19.—Marking the site of the encampment of Washington and his army during the winter of 1777-78, a memorial arch, for which congress appropriated $125,000 was presented to the state today by Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives on behalf of the government.

More than a hundred senators and congressmen who came here by special train from Washington attended the exercises. Governor Brumbaugh accepted the arch on behalf of the commonwealth, the transfer being attended with the firing of a salute by Battery C, National guard of Pennsylvania. The Sons of the Revolution formed about the arch as a guard of honor observing their annual celebration in conjunction with the exercises. Patriotic exercises incident to the presentation were under the auspices of the Valley Forge Park commission and were presided over by William Henry Sayen, president of the commission.

The arch is an imposing structure of marble.

Eulogizes Washington
Speaker Champ Clark, formally presenting the Washington memorial arch to Pennsylvania at a celebration here today paid tribute to Washington's headquarters in the winter of 1777-78 as "the most famous encampment on the surface of the globe." He eulogized George Washington, praised free government and declared congress is doing its duty toward bringing the present war to a speedy and triumphant conclusion.

"We stand today on ground hallowed by the unspeakable sufferings of as true a band of patriots as ever lived," said Speaker Clark. "It required more courage and fortitude to freeze and starve in the cantonments here during the awful winter of 1777-78, than it did to charge the British regulars in the open field or to assault them in the redoubts of Yorktown."

Take Up Cudgels for Congress
Taking up the cudgels for congress Speaker Clark declared that body represented the will of the people and will grant whatever the people want as soon as it ascertains they want it. "Congress," he said, "is the greatest legislative body in all history; yet every evil disposed person in the land can find some slander to utter about the American congress. They revel in such foul work. At this very moment when the country is engaged in the most stupendous war in all the bloody annals of mankind congress is doing its duty, it's whole duty manfully, industriously and patriotically to bring it to a speedy and triumphant conclusion."

ARMY RECRUITING TOTALS 120,185

WASHINGTON, June 19.—War recruiting for the regular army reached a total of 120,185 yesterday when 1,551 men were enlisted thruout the country. New York led with 287, California, Colorado, Iowa, and several other states are making rapid progress in filling their quotas. Nebraska probably will be the next state to complete its allotment and should reach its quota on Thursday. Vermont still is far behind any other state having supplied only one-tenth of its quota of 700 since April.

MAY BRING JAPANESE SHIPS INTO ATLANTIC

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Submarine inroads on trans-Atlantic shipping probably will draw Japanese vessels into the trans-Atlantic trade. The American government already is negotiating with Japan for removal of tonnage from the Pacific to the Atlantic. Japan has about 2,000,000 tons of ocean-going shipping much of which it is said, could be transferred to the Atlantic without seriously injuring Japanese trade.

FILE HODGE'S WILL

Zanesville, O., June 19.—The actors' fund of America has received $500,000 and the Metropolitan Art Museum $1,000,000 from the estate of the late John Hodge, whose will was filed here today. Hodge was a millionaire retired manufacturer who made his fortune in the manufacture of soap.

SHOUTS ALL POLES SHOULD BE HANGED

ZURICH, via Paris, June 19.—The Polish deputy Daszinski declared in the Vienna Reichs Rath that more than 30,000 Poles have been hanged by order of the German authorities, according to the Vienna Arbeiter Zeitung which prints special details of the sittings of the Reichs Rath on the 14 and 15th. Deputy Strieborny also described the abominable treatment accorded political suspects whereupon the Pan-Germanist deputy Helne shouted:

"They have not used the rope enough; all of them ought to have been hanged."

At these words all of the Slav and Polish members rushed upon Helne and the president was obliged to suspend the sitting in the midst of a tremendous uproar.

SUBSCRIBE MILLIONS FOR RED CROSS FUNDS

Hundreds of Communities Not Yet Heard From

Returns From Others Pour in So Rapidly that Tabulators Cannot Keep Pace with Them—Several Great Individual Donations Help Sweet Total.

Washington, June 19.—Incomplete reports to American Red Cross headquarters here tonight showed more than $35,000,000 subscribed during the first two days of the week's campaign to raise $100,000,000 for war relief. Hundreds of communities had not been heard from, but from others returns poured in so rapidly that tabulators could not keep pace with them.

Several great individual donations helped to swell the total today but the Red Cross war council expects later reports to include a great multitude of small donations by people of moderate means whose subscriptions went far toward the eleventh hour over-subscription of the liberty loan last week.

Tonight's total did not include the contributions of many small city or town communities particularly in the west where it is said local campaign committees plan to withhold their totals until late in the week in their hope of avoiding too optimistic spirit. New York City's total was nearing the $20,000,000 mark with $1,000,000 contributions from J. P. Morgan and G. F. Baker. A single pledge of $10,000,000 has been given by the war council tentatively for use in fighting tuberculosis in France. The name of the contributor was not made public.

A feature of today's report was the generous subscriptions from Cincinnati, Milwaukee, Buffalo and other cities having large German populations.

Total Nearly $20,000,000
New York, June 19.—Total subscriptions of nearly $20,000,000 have been made to the Red Cross fund during the first two days of the campaign here it was stated at a Red Cross luncheon today. New contributions of $5,426,000 were announced. Teams led by Mayor Mitchell and J. P. Morgan have each reported subscriptions of more than a million dollars.

Among the large contributions announced today were: Coughlin Brothers, $500,000; J. and W. Seligman, 100,000; Union Carbide company, 250,000; C. K. G. Billings, 50,000.

LANDIS CALLS FOR PETIT JURY VENIRE

CHICAGO, June 19.—Federal Judge K. M. Landis today issued a call for a petit jury venire for next Monday for Preempt, Ill., where a grand jury is now considering the cases of 150 I. W. W. agitators and others arrested at Rockford, Ill., for anti-conscription riots on registration day. It is expected that the indictments will be returned this week and trials begin next week. Charles F. Clyne, district attorney, James F. Neill, his assistant and Robert T. Neill, special assistant District Attorney, will go to Preempt to prosecute the cases.

APPLICATION BLANKS EXHAUSTED

Chicago, June 19.—The 5,000 application blanks for the second series of reserve officers training camps, available yesterday for the central department of the United States army was exhausted today and Major Paul B. Malone announced that it would be several days before distribution could be resumed. "There will be room for 971 men from Illinois," he said, "and the first day's demand for blanks indicates that there will be twenty times as many applications as there are vacancies."

USE TOBACCO SUBSTITUTE.

Copenhagen, via London, June 19.—Venerable jokes about cabbage or hay cigars has become a sad and serious reality in Germany, owing to the scarcity and high cost of genuine tobacco. The latest war substitute within the purview of the government department on substitutes is composed of the above together with other ingredients like strawberry leaf, lavender blossoms and sandal wood to impart aroma.

AWARD CONTRACTS FOR SOCKS.

GRAIN CROPS THRUOUT GERMANY BURNING UP

Prolonged Drought Has Not Been Broken Since May

Berlin on Sunday Experienced the Hottest June 17 on Record—Tropical Temperatures Reported Everywhere West of the Oder River.

Copenhagen, via London, June 19.—Throught Germany according to reports here all available grain crops are burning up as they did in 1915 in an unprecedented heat wave. The prolonged drought has not been broken since early in May. Berlin on Sunday experienced the hottest June 17 on record in the seventy years experience of the weather bureau. Tropical temperatures were also reported everywhere west of the Oder river. News reports of horse races and other sporting events feature "the terrific abnormal scorching" heat. Many horses were scratched on the opening day of the Hamburg derby week, because the track, built on a marshy corner moor was baked too hard for safety.

The weather bureau states that the prospects for rain or lower temperatures are very slight. The effect of the drought on grain crops around Berlin, where only eight millimeters of rain have fallen since May 1 is described by a neutral who arrived here on Friday as almost catastrophic.

The Sunday sermon writer in the Berlin Kreuz Zeitung who recently indulged in a most startling blending of religion and politics declared on Sunday that the drought was sent as a punishment for the sins of the people for listening to the editors of irreligious newspapers and asked how long it would be before this divine chastisement would bring the people to a sense of their iniquities.

ASKS REIMBURSEMENT FOR CHICAGO CADETS

CHICAGO, June 19.—Charles H. Perrine, acting principal of the Wendell Phillips High School today made a formal demand for the reimbursement of Chicago high school cadets who took part in the military maneuvers at Speedway Park last Saturday as part of the program which provided for the running of the American Automobile Derby.

Mr. Perrine declares that when the high school cadets were invited to participate in the entertainment it was understood that the management of Speedway Park was to pay the transportation of the boys and that luncheon was to be served the volunteers. He says that the boys were compelled to pay their own fare to the park and later either buy their luncheon or go hungry. He asks the park management to pay $450 toward the expenses of the boys.

David F. Reid, president of Speedway Park, says that confusion due to the transfer from Chicago of Captain E. Z. Steever just before the entertainment was responsible for the failure to provide transportation and food for the cadets.

SWEDEN DETERMINED TO GUARD NEUTRALITY

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Sweden's special commercial mission here headed by H. de Lagercrantz and Axel Robert Nordval made public today extracts from a speech by Foreign Minister Lindman, reiterating the determination of Sweden to guard both her independence and neutrality and to suffer such sacrifices as are necessary to escape participation in the world war.

"It is not unlikely that we shall encounter further obstacles and difficulties when living up to such a policy," the statement says, "but we all agreed upon this point: It is our firm determination to endure the sacrifices that are required so that we may escape the great sufferings that our participation in the world war would bring upon us. The object of our foreign policy must therefore be based upon upholding our country's independence and the fulfillment now as heretofore of a plain and impartial neutrality."

SYNDICATE BUYS BOLIVIAN BONDS

NEW YORK, June 19.—A banking syndicate composed of the Equitable Trust company and Chandler and Company, Inc., of New York and Councilman and Company of Chicago, announced today the purchases of an issue of $2,400,000 six percent bonds of the Republic of Bolivia.

The proceeds it was stated are to be used in the construction of a railroad from LaPaz, the principal city of Bolivia, into the Yungas Valley, a territory said to be rich in mineral and agricultural resources.

According to the statement issued by Chandler & Co., fiscal agents of Bolivia in this country, the loan is said to have the approval of the state department at Washington. Orders for the building of the railroad are to be placed in this country.

SEEKS AUTHORITY TO ISSUE STOCK

CHICAGO, Ill., June 19.—M. L. Bell, general counsel for the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad today applied to the public utilities commission for authority for the railroad to issue $65,000,000 in seven and six per cent preferred stock. He asserted the company now had a chance to dispose of the stock at par and asked immediate action on the application. If the authority is granted the railroad contemplates using $11,600,000 to pay off outstanding loans and notes, $5,282,000 in receivers' certificates and $20,000,000 in debenture bonds. The remaining $27,818,000 would be expended in extensions, improvements, rolling stock and additions, Mr. Bell stated.

ALLIES TO RESUME OFFENSIVE IN WEST

Berlin States Fighting Activity Has Been Revived at Several Points

FRENCH REPULSE ATTACK

Macedonian Front also Promises Early Developments On a Large Scale

AUSTRIANS TAKE POSTS

BULLEIN
BASEL, Switzerland, June 19, via Paris.—A Vienna dispatch says that the Austrian cabinet has resigned.

Indications point to an early resumption of operations on a grand scale in Belgium and France, if indeed, they have not already begun in Flanders and Champagne. A significant statement in the latest Berlin official communication says that in Flanders and Champagne "the fighting activity has been revived at several points."

Aside from this there is no information as to the exact state of affairs. In Champagne the Germans have made an attempt to recapture positions between Mont Blond and Mont Carnillet taken by the French on Monday, but met with repulse suffering heavy casualties. To the northwest around Craonne, heavy artillery duels are being fought.

Situation in Flanders Obscure
The situation in Flanders is even more obscure as neither the British nor French statements tend to clarify the German report of the commencement of hostilities.

Artillery duels of great intensity are known to have been in progress between Boesinghe and Frelinghen, and in the regions of Steenstraete and Het Sas while to the south in France in the neighborhood of the Bapaume-Cambrai road the British troops have resumed their trench raiding operations destroying German dugouts and taking prisoners.

The Macedonian theater also promises early developments on a large scale. While along the lines where General Sarail's forces are facing the Teutonic allies near the Greco-Serb border the reports show only artillery duels to be in progress the entente commander is still pouring men into Thessaly and occupying important localities. Another indication that the Greeks are turning toward the entente cause is shown by the fact that considerable quantities of arms and ammunition have been surrendered by the population of the invested towns and villages.

Austrians Capture Positions
Again the Austrians have endeavored to dislodge the Italians from positions northeast of Jamiano in the Carso sector of the Austro-Italian theater. A small attack has been repulsed with severe losses in men killed and made prisoner. On Monte Rombon, however, the Austrians were more successful in an attack capturing advanced posts of the Italians on the southeastern slopes of the mountain.

A high honor has been conferred on Vice-Admiral Sims of the United States Navy, commander-in-chief of the American naval forces in the war zone. The British admiralty announcement that during the absence of the British commander-in-chief on the coast of Ireland, Vice-Admiral Sims had hoisted his flag as the allied senior officer in general charge of operations in Irish waters.

Cabinet Crisis in Austria
Advices from Denmark, Switzerland and Holland indicate a cabinet crisis in Austria by reason of the fact that the Poles in the reichsrath, seeking the downfall of Premier Clem-Martine and also the foreign minister Count Zernin, have refused to vote the Austrian budget. A basel despatch quoting Vienna advices which have not yet been confirmed, says the cabinet has resigned.

Another American steamer, the Standard Oil Tanker John D. Archbold, has been sunk by an enemy submarine. It is believed that three members of the crew were lost in the disaster, which occurred when the Archbold was two days out from France, bound for the United States.

In addition to the main entrance
there will be entrance to the basement by a grade outside stairway.

The directors of the district are:
Charles A. Rowe, William Groves
and Jeffery Cleary. Mr. Rowe is president and Mr. Cleary secretary of the board.

Mr. DeGoveia began the work of erecting the old building Tuesday and has all of the walls practically

grounds and it is expected to have it ready for occupancy by Sept. 1.

TO SOON TO VOTE

Decatur is somewhat arrogantly
claiming the title of the only slack-less city in Illinois. It is a little too early for glorification on this line for federal agents may yet find a few Decatur citizens who evaded
the requirements of the registration law.

PROFITS IN STEEL.

The government has a tentative price of $56 a ton on the steel needed for its fleet of merchant ships.
Since steel is selling for other purposes at prices ranging from $95
to $120 a ton, it is easy to figure that the steel magnates are making a profit to be proud of on their regular business transactions. Under present conditions they can afford to be a bit generous with the government.

GERMANS AID RED CROSS.

Leading Germans in Chicago are taking an active part in the Red Cross campaign there, and why shouldn't they, for this great humanitarian organization stands ready to give its aid and succor to the wounded and needy of every nationality.
But it is gratifying to have the Illinois Staats-Zeitung, at times rabidly pro-German, issue a letter declaring that 50,000 persons in Chicago
of German descent were ready to support the Red Cross work.

PRICE INVESTIGATIONS.

Even the most patriotic and loyal of citizens are sometimes inclined to be dubious about the benefits from governmental price investigations.
The federal trade commission is soon
to start an investigation extraordinary as to the price of meat in Chicago. It will not be very hard for the commission to find out the cause of high retail prices if they consult the market figures for the past few months.

With the packers paying farmers
and stockmen $12 to $13 per cwt.
for cattle, $15 to $16 per cwt. for hogs and still higher proportionate prices for sheep and lambs, it is not difficult to tell that the retail prices are necessarily going to be way beyond the common levels.

THE GERMAN SECRET SERVICE.

The best evidence of how the kaiser's agents seek to spread their propaganda all over the world is found in the statement that German agents have even been busy at Ft.
Sheridan. Evidence has been secured to show that baseless reports have been spread at the camp about trench warfare on the continent. The story has been circulated that the life of the average soldier there is three days. Stories of like purport have been told and retold at the training camp.

There is not much danger that great harm will be done there but the result should be to teach army and government officials that even more vigorous measures than in the past must be adopted to overcome
the insidious methods of the kaiser.
No doubt there is a perfect network of the German secret service in this country and one of the great tasks
of America is to offset and overcome
it.

ANDREW CARNEGIE'S SAD END.

While very little has been said in the public press recently about Andrew Carnegie, very few people have known that this prominent American is a mental wreck. The Springfield Register in editorial comment gives the facts about Mr. Carnegie quoted below. It has been announced that Dr. Henry Smith Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation and one of the philanthropist's closest friends, has been appointed conservator of the fund. That Carnegie is bereft of reason can be directly attributed to the great war. The lines
below are quoted:

Carnegie's reason has been dwindle-ing since the war began, but the condition of the old ironmaster has been guarded jealously.

Quickly, but cautiously, the power to give away money was taken from him. The appointment of Dr. Pritchett was without publicity.

Aged, penniless and heart-broken,
the once powerful industrial monarch and apostle of peace sits in his castle home waiting the great armistice.

Closest friends are no longer recognized by Carnegie. Only now and then does he know Dr. Pritchett, Emperors, masters of finance, steel kings—there are but shadows now to the man who once mingled with them as a power.

New York pulsing around his place is unobserved. The once loved beauties of his Highland Castle are forgotten.

"Wife," wails the weary old voice,
over and over again, as Mrs. Carnegie tries to soothe him, "has the war ended yet? When—WHEN will peace come?"

No man tried to do more for nation-el peace than Carnegie. After the commission which he financed had reported on Balkan war atrocities, he pledged himself to a world campaign against war.

claration of war against Germany
reached him. Stricken to the heart, the veteran's pen dropped from his hand.

An hour later Mrs. Carnegie knelt by his side striving to comfort him.
My great dream gone. My great dream gone," he moaned endlessly.
"If I could only weep."

Weeks passed with their invasion, rapine, atrocities, each falling upon him as a physical blow.

"The dream of my life is ended,"
sobbed Carnegie.

"General paralysis," said the scientists, ordering no word of war spoken to the old ironmaster. They ordered quiet and change of scene.

Tenderly they brought Carnegie back home, bowed down with years
and sorrow.

But almost from day to day his condition changed for the worse. Seldom did he show any interest in money-getting or gift-giving. War was the great burden of his brain.

"How long will the war continue?"
he pleaded constantly and pitifully.
"I would give all I have—my last dollar—to shorten hostilities by a week."

But the great fortune of the master of Bethlehem has slipped from his grasp. He is the man who was Andrew Carnegie, wailing now and then out of shadowland: "Wife,
when will the war end?"

IN THIS SIGN WE CONQUER

(From the New York Sun)
Sixteen hundred years ago an enemy host threatened Gaul, precursor of modern France. The first Constantine, surnamed the Great, led his armies to the defense. Three times he was victorious, and it was in this campaign, as Eusebius and other historians record, that he saw in the sky a luminous cross, with the Greek words which have been rendered into English: "In This Sign, Conquer."

After sixteen hundred years
these blazes in the heavens a cross as luminous as that which struck awe to the heart of Constantine, a cross fiery, flaming and red—red with the blood of millions who have died for freedom, red with the glow of the inferno wherein the liberty of the world is being forged.

The Red Cross must be the symbol in which America goes forth to conquer. All other forms of conquest we have renounced.
Ours is the task not merely to supply millions of men and mountains of foodstuffs, ships and the weapons of warfare; we must rebuild cities and hearten war worn peoples, pour oil on their wounds
and bind them up, kneel by the lying and receive from their lips
the simple testament of the faith in which we are to rise, fight forward and finally rest on our arms victorious.

The tardiness of our entry into the war must be the measure of our effort. Let us give our money without stint when the call comes.
The Red Cross will shortly appeal to America for $100,000,000. There ought not to be an American who will not give something. A dollar from each of us would suffice. It must be more than that wherever possible.

To give money is so little! Can you shut your eyes upon the shining Red Cross?

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

THE BURDEN.

The prices of all things are high,
and they'll be higher yet; you'll soon
pay more for soup and pie, and liverwurst, you bet. The prices of all things are high, and they'll be higher yet; no wonder that you heave a sigh, if you are plunged in debt. At all times debt's a curse and blight that robs life of its bloom, and when the nations whoop and fight, it is a thing of doom. The man who doesn't owe a red may calmly view
the storm; he'll have enough to lay in bread and keep the shanty warm.
And if an evil day should come when he must ask for tick, the merchants will not have or hum, but say "Yes!"
pretty quick. And if he has to borrow mon, the banker will observe
"You are a thrifty lad, my son; I've watched your every curve. When others went in debt with speed, you were a cautious gent, and now I'll lend you all you need, at seventeen per cent." But if you're always running behind, have always owed the price,
the banker will surely find as cold
as Greenland's ice. Dark days may come upon us soon, the times that make men sweat; unhappy then
the thriftless lion who always is in debt.

the mail three times a week be-

PARK BOARD TALKED FOURTH OF JULY PLANS

No Special Program in Prospect Except for Children—Red Cross Society Given Authority to Put Tent
in Central Park.

The park board met last evening
in regular session and transacted
considerable business.

All approved bills were ordered paid.

H. P. Obermeyer representing the citizens' fourth of July committee and Judge Brookhouse, Rev. W. E.
Spoonts and Dr. David Reid representing the Red Cross Association, were present to talk about the Fourth of July celebration or to ascertain what the board meant to do in the matter.

The board informed the gentlemen that it was not running any Fourth of July celebration and especially wished it understood that they were not in competition with any organization or society or group of persons who meant to celebrate the day. They had simply favored something for the children as the program supposed to be planned would not be entertaining to the little folks and it was the desire to do something for them on the national holiday.

Mr. Obermeyer said that it had seemed not to be the wish of the banks and the merchants they represented to do much for a celebration that day and he was of the opinion that the project arranged for at the meeting in the chamber of commerce would have to be given up.

He had heard that there was talk of having a carnival on the driving club grounds all Fourth of July week and especial efforts to make something especially fine the Fourth but he knew positively of nothing definite.

The Red Cross people had nothing definite to offer but had come to see what had been decided on by others. It was their desire to boost the cause in every possible way and if a Fourth of July celebration could aid in that direction it was what they would like but they had no definite plans to offer.

They were assured by the park board that all organizations would be welcome at the park and all possible courtesies shown them but the park board as a body was not willing to undertake to be responsible for a general Fourth of July celebration.

The base ball amphitheater,
bleachers and fence are all to be taken away and that part of the grounds more especially devoted to golf hereafter.

Prof. T. P. Carter was present and outlined his ideas of a program for the children and the whole matter was placed in his hands with power to act in selecting assistants, prizes and the like. Mr. Brewer of the Y. M. C. A. was present and kindly agreed to assist so that something excellent may be anticipated by the children.

A letter was received from the Eli Bridge Company of Roodhouse
accepting an invitation to have their 200 employees enjoy their Fourth on the Park grounds, weather permitting.

A request from the Red Cross association to pitch a tent about 7 by 9 in Central park during the campaign for members was read and granted unanimously.

Several persons had suggested that the diagonal walks from the pavilion in Central park be left intact but it was explained by the committee in charge of the Central park improvements that it was the intention to have the space within the curved walks occupied with shrubbery and flowers.

It was decided to use concrete lamp posts in the central park illumination and the wires were ordered laid accordingly.

The chairman of the board was instructed to endeavor to secure conveniences for both boys and girls for bathing on the Fourth; that is, to endeavor to secure tents for dressing rooms so that all who want may take a swim.

The committee on monkey house
said the proposed plan would be very expensive for a new house and it was decided to investigate the possibility of taking the pavilion from Central park for the purpose as it will be displaced by the monument.

Mrs. Myron Miller, son and daughter, Merton and Madeline, are spending the week at the home of their aunt, Miss Jennie McEvers on E. College street.

POOR GIRL SETS PACE AND MANY HELP RED CROSS

(By Hazel Bloom Frame, in Springfield Register)

She was not a member of one of the families in the rich farming community. Dressed in plain print and her hands red and hard from farm house toil she was an eloquent picture of the sturdy young woman whose services are in demand this season of the year on farms.

She stood on the outer rim of the crowd while the Red Cross workers from Springfield pleaded their cause. They wanted thirty-five thousand dollars from rural communities in Sangamon county alone. The stories they told were fine and patriotic and the stirring scenes from the battle field which they described were an evening's entertainment to the persons who lived in this quiet, rich and peaceful community, but the response to the call for money did not come. Many of them had just finished subscribing to the Liberty Loan and the war was so far away that they could not visualize the men suffering as their own—these persons in this wealthy farming section.

And then—

One of the speakers began talking about the aid the Red Cross had extended to rural communities which were not so finely situated as the Illinois farms. The speaker's voice droned on but the girl on the outer edge of the crowd pushed her way forward toward the front. Her face glowing with eagerness, her eyes misty with an expression that made men in the crowd make way for her, she laid something on the speaker's table no one knew just what the amount was, but it was a signal, if the poorest girl in the community could contribute something surely others could, and the Red Cross workers were busy taking names from then on.

"But what made her do it?" asked the woman in the Red Cross shop, to whom the story was told.

This was her story, briefly. She was a Tennessee girl. She had been brought up with a lot of gaunt, bearded settlers who carried a gun and regarded everyone with suspicion.

Then to this isolated community one day came a visiting Red Cross nurse. She could do wonderful things. Bind a broken bone in splints while the doctor was coming, staunch a cut or a gunshot wound, chills and fever fled before her explorations. She advised with the women about their cooking and housework and with both men and women about the sanitation of their homes. Out of this training had grown the farm girl sturdy and strong and useful, she who had once been a sickly, puny child, so she never forgot her debt to the Red Cross. She paid it the other night by becoming an unconscious leader in arousing a farming community to their duty to the American Red Cross and Uncle Sam.

JAMES SILCOX HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

Former Resident Visits Scenes Familiar to Him Many Years Ago—Still Young at 83

A gentleman who would easily pass for a man of 65 years was seen on the streets yesterday and his name was James Silcox of Upland, California, now on a visit with his son in the vicinity of Concord. Although he looks so young he was born into this world 83 years ago and looks as tho he would reach par without any trouble. His wife and he were caught in a bad railroad accident last year and Mrs. Silcox has never fully recovered tho she is able to get about all right. They are the parents of ten sons and three daughters, six of the former and all the latter still living. Five of the sons are in California and are doing well. With the father they have orange orchard land and a large building in Upland which is profitable.

Mr. and Mrs. Silcox have been married almost sixty years the knot having been tied when the bride was but thirteen and one half years old. They married young in those days and the married life has ever been pleasant and happy. In his early days Mr. Silcox worked in Jacksonville for Mr. Maury, the plasterer at fifty cents a day but it was good wages in those times.

As he grew older he married and moved to the vicinity of Beardstown and there he led a strenuous life for some years. He was an ardent upholder of the union but there were some in his neighborhood who sympathized with the south and to whom the word abolitionist was the sum of all villainies. There were in the vicinity some elderly men who were not of the faith of those sympathizers and some not so old but as they were surrounded by the other kind they hadn't much to say on the subject.

Mr. Silcox was a stalwart man, weighed 180 pounds largely composed of good muscle and was an expert boxer. On several occasions he came across a bully abusing an elderly man and taking the side of the abused person gave the other a good whipping. He was promptly fined $10 and costs and as soon as his neighbors heard of it they promptly made up the sum to him and a good lot beside.

He tried hard to enlist provided some one would look after his wife and children but no one would do so and they managed to have him rejected when he tried to enter the army.

He often recalls those stirring days and feels that while they are a long way off they were a prominent part of his life. He moved to the vicinity of Concord soon after the war and had there a long time before going west.

HEARS OF THE DEATH OF ANOTHER BROTHER

Just a month from the day on which George Hollinger of this city heard of the death of a brother at Mt. Carroll, came the news of the death of another brother, William H. Hollinger of Waverly, Tenn. The deceased was 77 years of age and leaves only a son and two brothers. George of this city and Augustus of Mr. Carroll. Of six brothers and two sisters only the two mentioned are now living.

Mr. Hollinger enlisted at Mt. Carroll at the first call for three months men during the Civil war and served till the end. He was a member of G. A. R. and an upright, respected citizen. As the funeral was to be held today it would have been impossible for Mr. Hollinger to get there in time so he didn't go.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Yesterday morning while John Marshall, ticket agent at the Wabash was doing some work in some manner large piece of gas pipe fell and struck his little six year old son, Clifford, right over his left eye inflicting a bad wound requiring several stitches.

The pipe then struck the child's left leg badly hurting the member. Dr. Allen King was summoned and gave all necessary attention and the little fellow will probably get along without any serious consequences tho it was a close call for his eye.

NINE ARRESTS FOLLOW WOMANS CONFESSION

Attempted Murder, Robbery and Blackmail Interwoven in Admissions of Mrs. Ray Hyman.

New York, June 19.—Attempted murder, robbery and blackmail were interwoven in a confession made to United States Commissioner Gilchrist today by Mrs. Ray Hyman, the "fifty percent a month banker" who is charged with appropriating money intrusted to her for investment. The woman's revelations brought about the arrest of nine persons who were held in $2,500 bail each and warrants were issued for five others.

Mrs. Hyman told of those who worked with her to fleece the public, how they advanced her money to further the scheme and how hundreds of persons had been brought to her with their savings (the tales of high interest spread by those co-operating with her. She charged that certain persons who had obtained large sums of money from her and were expecting an exposure of the swindle tried to drown her in Oyster Bay by overturning their boats. After she had been rescued by life-savers and had recovered, she alleged $8,000 had been taken from her pocket book by companions.

Mrs. Hyman stated "that investments totaling approximately $500,000 were to have been wiped out by going into bankruptcy. She admitted that not a dollar of the money she received from her "clients" had been invested, the scheme simply being to pay occasional dividends, from what came in as investments and to keep clients coming so fast that the income would exceed payments.

Records for the movement of coal over the Beardstown division of the Burlington railroad were smashed again Sunday when sixteen long drags, hauling 1574 loads or a total of 83,093 tons passed over the division and delivered the black diamonds to the Galesburg division.

The first train was delivered at Bushnell at 12:40 a. m., yesterday and the last one at 11:45 o'clock last night. The former record was 16 trains of 1122 loads, with tonnage of 73,144. It was made on May 18th, this year.—Beardstown Illinoisian-Star.

ISSUES REGULATIONS FOR SAILORS' INSURANCE

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Regulations under which all officers and men of merchant ships plying between ports of the United States and the war zone must be insured by their owners for from $1,500 to $5,000 against death, maiming or capture were issued today by Secretary McAdoo. They become effective as to vessels leaving the United States on June 26 and as to those sailing from foreign ports on July 10.

The secretary announced the appointment of John J. Crowley, a life and accident insurance expert of Hartford, Conn., to have charge of a new seamen's insurance division of the war risk insurance bureau, as assistant to Director Delaney.

REDUCE SHORTAGE OF FREIGHT CARS

NEW YORK, June 19.—The country's shortage of freight cars has been reduced about one third since the railroad war board took the situation in hand on May 1. It was announced here tonight by the American railway association. On that date the shortage was 148,627 cars. On June 1 it was 105,127. The decrease is attributed by the association to the "prompt response on the part of both shippers and railroads to the specific suggestions" by the war board as to how to use the freight equipment more effectively. For four months before May 1, the trend of congestion had been upward.

WOODMEN ADOPT AMENDED CHARTER

CHICAGO, June 19.—Amended charter providing for an increased tax rate of 20 cents per $1,000 was adopted today at the triennial convention of the Modern Woodmen of America. The war risk was given as the reason for the increased rate. The new charter will require the approval of the secretary of state and the state insurance commissioner and a messenger left tonight for Springfield in an effort to get the approval to present to the convention.

There is also a movement on foot to raise a $3,000,000 fund to care for the families of members who expect to go to the front. It has been endorsed by state caucuses but by-laws require unanimous consent for a special assessment for such a fund.

WANT PHARMACEUTICAL CORPS ESTABLISHED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 19.—A resolution asking the war department to establish a pharmaceutical corps as an assistant organization to the medical corps of the United States army was the principal feature of the opening session of the four day convention of the Illinois Pharmaceutical association and the auxiliary association of Illinois pharmaceutical travelers which convened tonight in this city.

There are about 200 delegates here and many more are expected.

GERMAN SONG CAUSES FIGHT.

Chicago, June 19.—A German song which he was singing as he went home early today aroused objections from three men and a quarrel followed. Joseph Sale, 25 years old told the police who arrested him. As a result of the disturbance, Alexander Buklezhutch was stabbed to death. John Bertie may die from wounds in the abdomen and Valentine Comer was seriously slashed.

RE. MANY POLES.

Chicago, June 19.—Announcement was made here today that 1,249 Poles have been recruited for the United States army thru the special Polish recruiting office here.

FIND NO MOTIVE FOR PIPER'S MURDER

Dr. W. J. Condon Under Guard At Chattanooga, Tenn., Charged With Slaying Graduate Student.

New Brunswick, N. J., June 19.—No motive has been disclosed as yet for the murder of John Vincent Piper, graduate student at Rutgers college whose body was found near here on Saturday after he had been missing four months. Dr. William J. Condon, a physician of this city and a captain in the United States army medical corps, is under guard at Chattanooga, Tenn., charged with the crime.

Prosecutor James E. Stricker said tonight there would be sensational developments and that he had sufficient evidence to assure a conviction in the case. A puzzling feature of the case is what disposition was made of Piper's body from the time he is believed to have been shot in February until it was discovered on Saturday.

Dr. Condon has been prominent in society and politics in this city. He was a lieutenant and assistant surgeon in the United States army in the Philippines and Japan from 1900 to 1902 and was a captain in the New Jersey National Guard for ten years after that.

Mrs. Condon is suffering from a nervous breakdown. She has refused to make any statement or receive callers since her husband's arrest. Piper who was a graduate of the University of Vermont not only paid his college expenses by caring for farmhouses and doing other work, but supported his wife and two children. He was 24 years old.

Dr. Condon is 38.

"KITTY" GORDON ENLISTS.

Chicago, June 19.—K. T. Gordon, who as "Kitty" Gordon has been widely known in western intercollegiate conference circles as half back of the University of Chicago football team today added his name to the list of athletes who have joined the colors. Gordon was enrolled at the United States naval training station at Great Lakes as a first class Yeoman, U. S. N. R. F., and has been assigned to duty in the station canteen.

STATES COLD STORAGE PLACES ARE FULL.

New York, June 19.—A statement saying every available cold storage place in this city is full to capacity and charging that retailers are maintaining high prices in spite of affluence of food, was issued here tonight by Joseph Hartigan, commissioner of weights and measures. Unless federal and municipal agencies intervene, the commissioner said there is danger of further price increases and speculation will not be eliminated.

WASHINGTON WELCOMES RUSSIAN MISSION

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Washington today opened its arms to the Russian diplomatic mission headed by Ambassador Boris Bakhmeteff with warmth and enthusiasm.

Greeted by Secretary Lansing and other officials and escorted thru streets lined with cheering people and honking automobiles the mission was given a welcome expressive of this country's response to the mighty democratic upheaval in Russia. Having rested during the afternoon from their five weeks' trip the visitors dined quietly tonight at the home placed at their disposal. Tomorrow they will pay their respects to Secretary Lansing and go with him to the White House to be received by President Wilson and to present a message from the new Russian government. Lieut Gen. Roop will convey the greetings of the Russian army to Secretary of War Baker.

WILL ENCOURAGE KEEPING OF SHEEP

Association Incorporated to Arouse Greater Interest in This Industry
—Wool and Mutton Both Short

The National Sheep and Wool Bureau of America with headquarters in Chicago has been incorporated. The purpose is to urge the keeping of sheep in greater numbers so that shortage of wool and mutton may be relieved.

"Enlist for more sheep and more wool," is the slogan of the bureau. Its emblem bears the red, white and blue of the national preparedness purpose for which the bureau was created. Its temporary offices are in the Record Building at the Chicago stockyards, but downtown offices will be opened forthwith and the stockyards office made a clearing-house for the distribution of ewe lambs saved by its efforts from slaughter thru the co-operation and voluntary aid of the Chicago packers.

Earnest Work is Planned
The recruiting campaign among farmers, bankers and women for the keeping of sheep, even a few head, on land which now does not serve an economic purpose, will be waged as soon as the preliminaries of the organization have been completed.

"Unless millions more sheep are added to the present number, the organization claims, the manufacture of civilian clothes is threatened. Retail clothing merchants are among the many forces co-ordinating their efforts thru the bureau activities. Herman C. Ritter of Youngstown, Ohio, president of the National Retail Clothiers' association, and Alfred Decker of the Chicago association are members of the governing board, and Mr. Decker is one of the incorporators of the bureau, which is not for profit.

Sees Serious Problem
"I attended a meeting of the commercial education board of the advisory commission of the council of national defense in Washington last week," Mr. Ritter, said, in a letter to the bureau. "This has convinced me, beyond a doubt, of the situation we are up against. It is a serious problem we have to handle with the 'more sheep, more wool' campaign. We cannot get started any too early. The textile and clothing industry is dependent on it, and that is a gigantic industry. Each day lost is a loss of stupendous import to every line of clothing and wool manufacture, trade and commerce. It will be one of the greatest pleasures to be affiliated with the work of the national sheep and wool bureau; you are on the right track and Chicago is the logical location for the national headquarters."

Urgent Need of Wool
The present supply of wool for the needs of the country is said to be less than one half enough. The war requirements will run the total needed up to 750,000,000 pounds, as against an available stock of less than 300,000,000, according to estimates of the bureau. The demands for wool for soldiers' uniforms are so great that either the boys in the trenches and camps will not be adequately clothed or enormous inroads will be made into the needs of the garment and clothing trade.

A conference has been called by the executive committee of the bureau which will be attended by representatives of the big packers and at which it is expected that announcement will be made to stop the slaughter of ewe lambs suitable for breeding purposes if the bureau will distribute the lambs among the farmers, railroads, bankers, woolen mills and others who are aiding the replenishing of sheep stocks.

RED CROSS WORKERS BUSY WITH PLANS

COUNTY WILL BE FULLY ORGANIZED BY SATURDAY.

Big Drive Next Week Will Bring in Thousands of Members—Chairman Crabtree Emphasized Need for Assistants—Some Committees Named.

There is an immediate need for more workers in the organization work of the Red Cross campaign for membership. E. E. Crabtree, chairman of the membership and organization committee, said yesterday that plans for the membership campaign have started off auspiciously but that scores of workers must be secured and that quickly. The workers should volunteer their services at once so that they can be listed and assigned to definite tasks. Typists and stenographers are wanted in addition to secretaries and clerks. Then there is work in sight for solicitors and canvassers. Car owners can assist by furnishing cars and drivers, and in fact if you are willing to assist in this work the organization committee will certainly find a place for you if you send your name and address.

Tonight representatives from the towns in the county where it is planned to organize auxiliaries and branches will attend a conference at the Red Cross shop, 231 West State street. It is earnestly hoped that representatives from all these towns and from the country precincts will attend the conference.

Intensive Preparation.
As previously indicated, this week will be one of intensive preparation for the membership campaign during the coming week. In order to secure 7500 members in this county it is necessary to have a definite and strong organization in each voting precinct. It will necessarily be a hurry up organization as there are only three or four days to devote to the preparations. Fortunately for Chairman Crabtree this is a cause in which everybody is interested and by a great united effort it is going to be readily possible to put thru this membership campaign successfully within the stipulated time.

T. M. Tomlinson, who is chairman of the publicity committee, with his assistants will be busy today putting the Red Cross cards on the wind shields of automobiles. Mr. Tomlinson said yesterday that it would not be possible in each instance to ask the owner for permission and he expressed the hope that car owners who find the Red Cross posters on their cars will leave them there for publicity purposes until after the campaign is over.

Workers are Needed.
Too much stress cannot be laid upon the need for workers. If you cannot do anything else in the great war cause, certainly you can do "your bit" now and help in this Red Cross campaign for membership. The officers, directors and executive committee of the Red Cross and the special committees appointed for this campaign are named below. These are only a few of the workers and hundreds of volunteers will be necessary to accomplish the desired result.

OPPOSE ONE OFFICER PLAN FOR TWO SCHOOLS

Chicago Association Does Not Favor
Proposal to Have Joint Management of Schools for Deaf and Blind Here.

Members of the Social and Mutual Advancement association for the Blind of Chicago have heard an intimation that the School for the Deaf and the School for the Blind located in this city may be under the management of one officer. The association is advised that such a course is contemplated by the board of administration. The association, with headquarters at 311 Masonic Temple building, Chicago, believes that such a change would be detrimental to the interests of both schools. Setting forth its position on the subject, the association has adopted the following

Resolutions

Whereas, it has come to the notice of this organization, that the Board of Administration is now considering the advisability of combining the School for the Deaf and the School for the Blind under one managing officer; and

Whereas, methods employed in teaching the deaf and the blind are entirely distinct and unrelated, so that the interest and attention of one man cannot be centered equally upon both institutions; and

Whereas, many of the states have tried the experiment of combining the institutions of the deaf and blind in one institution, and have invariably abandoned this practice, as soon as the attendance was sufficiently large to warrant the division; and

Whereas, the schools for the deaf and the blind, in this state are already established, are located more than two miles apart, and have each a large attendance, so that the management of both institutions under one head would be difficult, if not altogether impracticable; and

Whereas, the above-named conditions would necessitate the appointment of an assistant managing officer for one of the schools so that comparatively little money would be saved to the state by the adoption of this plan; and

Whereas, the most advanced thought and experience of educators and workers for the blind are overwhelmingly in favor of providing for the instruction of the deaf and the blind under separate management, as shown in such states as the following: New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Connecticut, Maryland, Michigan, Indiana, Missouri, Wisconsin, Iowa, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Arkansas, Georgia, New Mexico; therefore be it

Resolved, by the Social and Mutual Advancement Association of the Blind of Chicago, that we earnestly protest against any attempt to combine the school for the deaf and the School for the Blind of the state under one managing officer, and respectfully request that His Excellency, Governor Frank O. Lowden and the Department of Public Welfare prevent the adoption of any measure so detrimental to the cause of the blind, and so contrary to all progress; and, be it further

Resolved, that a copy of this resolutions be sent to the Governor and the Director of the Department of Public Welfare of the State of Illinois.

WAVERLY M. E. CHURCH IS MODERN STRUCTURE

Dr. McCarty Delivered Strong Address at Exercises Sunday—Building Will be Dedicated in September.

Through some error in shipping, the corner stone for the new M. E. church at Waverly did not arrive in time for the exercises Sunday. A large number had assembled, however, and the program was carried out as announced, with Rev. F. A. McCarty, district superintendent, delivering the address of the day. Since the work of construction was begun on May 10, excellent progress has been made and the masons now have the walls up to the gallery line. The work of wrecking the old church was begun April 24. According to present plans the dedication of the new First Methodist church will take place in September.

The exercises Sunday were held at 3 o'clock. After a hymn by the choir a talk of introduction was made by the pastor, Rev. F. E. Smith. Rev. Mr. Campbell, of the Baptist church, read a scripture lesson and the choir gave an anthem. A second scripture lesson was read by Rev. Mr. Metzler, the Christian church pastor. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. D. H. Hartley, pastor of the Methodist church at Virden.

Dr. McCarty spoke of the affairs of the church in relation to the present national crisis and commended the members of the congregation for their enthusiastic support of the building program at this time. At the close of the program Rev. Mr. Smith gave a historical sketch of the building operations. The members of the building committee are N. B. Rohrer, Fred Deatherage, Dr. N. J.

Hughes, W. B. Smedley and Mrs. W. E. Swift.

The New Building.
The new church building is colonial in style and is modern in every detail. It is built of brick. The outside dimensions are 56 by 78 feet. The main auditorium will seat 300 and there is a Sunday school room adjoining which when opened will double the church capacity. On the first floor are four Sunday school rooms. In the balcony are seven class rooms. The choir room and the pastor's office are on the first floor.

The plan provides for a basement under the entire church, with boiler room, kitchen, storage room, fuel and furnace room, as well as a large dining room. The dining room is 40 by 41 feet and an assembly room adjoining will make a large room 40 by 76, when the two are thrown together.

H. R. Temple of Champaign is the architect and William Kuhne of Rantoul is the contractor.

NOTICE!

As a part of the organization work for the Red Cross membership campaign the members in the country precincts have been requested to attend a conference to be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Red Cross shop, 231 West State street. Chairman Crabtree is particularly anxious that all members of the county organization committees shall attend this conference, as it is desired to talk over various plans which are of vital importance to the success of the campaign.

THE SAVING OF HUMAN MISERY

(Chicago Post)

We have come to regard the Red Cross campaign as "a business campaign." So it is, in the high sense of "business" as efficient self-preservation.

But the Red Cross is far more than that. It is far more than a membership button, or a subscription receipt. It is far more than a "Chicago high mark" surpassing a New York high mark. It is far more than a bit of cold duty done to an abstract idea.

The Red Cross means medicine and bed clothing for our militia boys when they lie, as the Sixth Illinois lay at Springfield, in fever-tossed cots without covering or attendance.

The Red Cross means the first drink of cool water to the parched lips of the American soldier who is going to drag himself out of the trenches back to the first-aid shelter.

It means the ambulance which is going to swing his shattered body away from the shock of battle line, and the base hospital where he is going to have the best chance human aid can give him to get well. It means the trained, cool physician who is to fight off death for him; it means the quick, silent nurse who is to be ever "on guard" by his bed.

The Red Cross means, too, the care of the mother or the wife or the little children that he leaves behind him. It means that when his arm is gone, the strong arm of a national organization will be thrown behind his dependents.

The Red Cross means THE SAVING OF HUMAN MISERY.

MISS BERTHA ROBERTS TO WED GEO. R. CAIN TODAY

Ceremony for Well Known Young People Will Be Solemnized This Morning—To Take Auto Journey to Wisconsin

The marriage of George R. Cain of Jacksonville and Miss Bertha A. Roberts of Chapin will be solemnized this morning at 6:45 o'clock at the parochial residence of the Church of Our Savior. The solemn ceremony will be said by Rev. Father Maroney of Carrollton, who is a relative of the groom. Only immediate relatives of the young people will be present other than the attendants, Dr. and Mrs. Austin Kingsley.

Miss Roberts will wear a suit of pearl crepe de chine with shoes to match in color. Her hat will be white and her waist of white georgette crepe with blue beads. The groom will wear a summer suit of blue serge. This June bride will follow the old lines, "Something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue," for she will wear a watch bracelet given her a year ago last Christmas by Mr. Cain; a wedding ring will be the newest thing in her costume; she will have the handkerchief her mother carried at her own wedding, and the blue leading of the waist will complete the details of the well known lines.

Miss Roberts is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Roberts of Chapin. She was born in Cincinnati but the greater part of her life has been spent at the family home in Chapin. After attending school there she became a student of the Jacksonville high school and graduated with a good record in the class of 1916. Many charms of character and person have added to the popularity of this bride and the friends are countless who will now join in extending congratulations and in hoping for the greatest wedded happiness in the years to come.

Mr. Cain is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cain, well known residents of this community. He has for a number of years been associated with his father and brothers under the name of J. H. Cain & Sons. He is one of the traveling salesmen for the firm and has been very successful in his work. He finished his school work at Rountt college and immediately entered business life with a well directed enthusiasm which counted from the start. The comparatively young he now ranks well among the business men of Jacksonville.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cain will leave in their car for a wedding trip to northern Illinois and Wisconsin. They will visit Chicago, Milwaukee and Racine and then go to Knottwood Bay in northern Wisconsin, expecting to return to Jacksonville about July 4. They will be at home to their friends at 212 Sandusky street. Although the wedding will be a comparatively quiet event with only immediate relatives present, a large number of wedding gifts attest the good will and high regard of friends.

FATE OF EUROPEAN KINGS HANGS IN BALANCE

Future Looks Grim and Foreboding to Many Crowned Heads—Several Thrones Already Overturned—Integrity of Hindenburg Line Emperor William's Hope

London, May 20.—In these days of dynastic changes, of which the abdication of Czar Nicholas of Russia has been the most notable and that of King Constantine of Greece the most recent, the fate of several other kings hangs in the balance, and the future looks grim and foreboding in their sight.

The threatened monarchs include the German Emperor, the Emperor of Austria-Hungary, the Czar of Bulgaria and the Sultan of Turkey. Other royalties whose position is being shaken are the German-born consort of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, who has never been a favorite with the Dutch people, and King Gustav of Sweden, whose popularity—dimmed of late years by reason of temperamental acerbity—has been shaken by the Germanophile sentiments of his German-born Queen. The wind that blows through Europe whistles thru their palace keyholes, and makes them anxious but with wisdom and tact they may survive, for they bow to the constitution, and do no violence to democratic sentiment, like the rulers of Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey.

May Make Short Work of King
Ferdinand of Bulgaria is believed to stand firmer than did Constantine of Greece, but his fate is largely bound up with that of the Austrian empire, into whose keeping he has entrusted his fortunes. There is a revolutionary minority in Bulgaria, which may be expected to grow in importance the more peace is denied the Bulgarian people. If, as a result of the war, the Bulgars find that their sacrifices and sufferings have merely had the purpose of and have not gained them the territorial ambitions which Ferdinand has promised them, they are likely to make as short work of this autocrat as they did of princes who ruled previously in Bulgaria. Ferdinand knows this, and for his safety's sake the private train that takes him to Vienna is always kept ready.

The Sultan of Turkey, who has little of the ability and none of the cunning of his wily brother, Abdul Hamid, is merely the weak tool of Enver Bey, and when that German-educated soldier and statesman falls he will go with him. Victory for the Allies will mean the dissolution of the Turkish empire as at present constituted. In the revolt of the Arabs the dissolution has already begun. The loss of Armenia and Mesopotamia has been another hard blow. And when the British army is in Jerusalem, the throne of the Sultan will not be worth a day's purchase.

Youngest European Monarch
Youngest of all European monarchs in experience of the throne, the Emperor of Austria is sadly lacking in the authority and masterfulness of his uncle, the late Francis Joseph. The Hapsburgs have always ruled autocratically in the dual monarchy, and as one of the great aims of the present war is to sweep away despotic rulers, the fate of the young emperor seems pre-determined. The Slav and Latin races in his dominions demand their freedom. And when they are liberated the Austrian empire automatically perishes, and without an empire there can be no emperor.

Lastly, there is the German Emperor. How does he stand after nearly three years of war? Does revolution yet knock at his door? Have the forces that sent Nicholas Romanoff and Constantine of Greece into obscurity spread themselves yet as far as Potsdam? The Emperor is still securely chained to his throne but according to reliable accounts he is not the supreme force that he was.

The Hindenburg line is not only the fortified front behind which the German armies fight for their lives; it is the entrenched position of Prussian militarism and Kaiserism. When the allies—which now include the United States—break the Hindenburg line, they sweep Prussian militarism and Kaiserism alike.

Emperor William's hope, then, is the integrity of the Hindenburg line. When that is broken the fate of the Kaiser should be as surely sealed as the fate of his allies and dupes—Karl of Austria, Ferdinand of Bulgaria, and Mohamed V. of Turkey.

The wind that is blowing Europe free has already overturned several thrones. Before the war is over the wind will have attained the violence of a gale, and in that gale half a dozen more thrones are likely to topple over. Even now the handwriting is on the wall.

WISCONSIN DOING HER BIT.

Madison, Wis., June 20.—Today's commencement at the University of Wisconsin disclosed the fact that 150 members of the graduating class are taking the officers' training course at Fort Sheridan. The faculty as well as the student body has responded in a striking way to the call of the nation. A dozen of the professors are in the National Guard or in training camps. Half a dozen others have been granted leave of absence to do war work for the Government. Fifty of the faculty have been assisting the military department in drilling the students while twenty-seven others are working part time for the State in connection with the Council of Defense.

PATRIOTIC OPEN GOLF TOURNEY.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 20.—Leading golfers of the country gathered today at the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club for the opening of the patriotic golf tournament. The event takes the place of the customary open championship tournament conducted by the United States Golf Association. The competition will consist of 72 holes medal play, 18 to be played on the first day, the same number on the second day, and 36 holes on the third day.

CONFUSION FOLLOWS ORDER TO CEASE WORK

At Explosive Factory Under Construction Near Bristol, England—Decision Was Result of U. S. Entry Into War—Was to Have Been One of Largest in England.

Bristol, Eng., June.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Nothing since the beginning of war so stirred Bristol and surrounding country as the decision of the government, that owing to the entry of the United States into the war, it was no longer necessary to proceed with the erection of the large explosives factory under construction at Henbury, near here. Nearly $500,000 had been spent and thousands of workmen had been engaged for weeks in constructing the factory which was to have been one of the largest in England.

The order to abandon work came like a bolt out of the blue. Owing to the great extent of the factory the order resulted in much confusion. For instance some of the contractors who had official intimation of the government's decision promptly ceased work, while others, not having received instructions, proceeded blindly with their work. The result was that while one group of contractors at the end of a row of buildings were busy with the work of construction, another group at the other end were as industriously demolishing those partly built. This chaotic condition proceeded for a week.

Some idea of the proposed size of the factory may be gained from the fact that more than forty farmers were deprived of their farms, consisting of the best grazing land in the west of England, to make room for it. Houses and barns were pulled down and cleared away. Water was to have been brought from Sharpness about twelve miles away, and all along the route the roads had been opened to lay mains.

All these trenches are now being filled in and every thing else is to be replaced and the farmers reinstated.

Harvard Club to Maintain Bed.

Paris, June.—In the American Ambulance Hospital at Neuilly there has recently been endowed a bed, "in memory of Dilwyn Parrish Starr", a famous Harvard quarterback. The endowment is unique in that each convalescent soldier who leaves it will be supplied with fifty francs. The Porcellan club at Harvard will maintain the bed for at least one year and may extend the endowment thruout the war. Starr was killed "somewhere in France" September 15, 1916, when, as Lieutenant in the Coldstream Guards, he led in a successful assault on enemy trench. He had previously had charge of a machine-gun section in Gallipoli. Three thousand Americans by individual gifts have so far supported this hospital and one hundred cents of every dollar contributed goes to actual hospital relief.

Many Insurance Policies Lapse.

London, June.—Nearly 7,000,000 life insurance policies written by nineteen insurance companies in England have been allowed to lapse since the beginning of the war, according to official figures published here. The fact that for the years 1913 and 1914 the companies received $175,000,000 in premiums and paid only $77,500,000 in claims and surrenders has caused an inquiry to be made thru the House of Commons. The government is asked to take steps to prevent the companies from lapsing so many policies of the working classes.

Clothing Center Inaugurated.

Stockholm, Sweden, June.—Owing to the scarcity of clothing material in Germany, the principal communes of greater Berlin have inaugurated an intercommunal clothing center where old and worn clothing and footwear is bought by official appraisers. These are renovated and resold at the lowest possible figure and it is possible to purchase a suit of men's clothes for from three to five dollars. Over 50,000 articles have already been collected and renovated.

Italy's Gold Reserve Increases.

Rome, June.—An average of 2,000 persons a month are making gifts of gold coins or jewelry to the Treasury Department in response to an appeal to aid in increasing the nation's gold reserve. As many of the gifts of jewelry come from the women of titled families, the fear has been expressed that much of the old jewelry because of its antiquity and workmanship, will thus be melted up and lost.

LITERBERRY BAPTIST S. S. CLASS MEETS

Philomen Class Members Entertained at Home of Mrs. J. M. Litterberry. M. E. Society Meets with Mrs. Flora Nickolas—Members to Aid in Red Cross Work—Other Literberry Notes.

Literberry, Ill., June 19.—Rev. William Lumley of Jacksonville filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. Litter of Shady Lawn, teacher of the "Philomen Class" in the Baptist Sunday school, entertained her class at her home on Saturday afternoon. The Crum sisters furnished the piano music, to the delight of all present. Each member gave a reading on the subject; "The Duties of a Sunday School Teacher". The readings were all first class, and denote some study in the composition and arrangement. There was also prayer by all the members, some good singing and a general social time. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon. Mr. Litter was an able assistant in many ways, and was kept quite busy for he said at the close of the day: "I would have gone down to Grace Chapel to the ice cream supper, if I had not been so very tired." See? The Literberry M. E. Society met on Wednesday afternoon at Arcadia with Mrs. Flora Nickolas. The annual election of officers resulted in the following being elected: President, Mrs. J. M. Litter; Vice President, Mrs. Mary Dinwiddie; Secretary, Mrs. Ellis Thompson; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. D. K. McCarty; Treasurer, Mrs. Levi Deatherage; Pianists, Miss Ruth Deatherage and Miss Ethel Sorrells. Chairman on entertainment committee, Mrs. O. M. Petefish; Flower committee, Mrs. C. A. Beavers and Mrs. Obermeyer. $15 was voted from this society to be sent to the cyclone sufferers immediately.

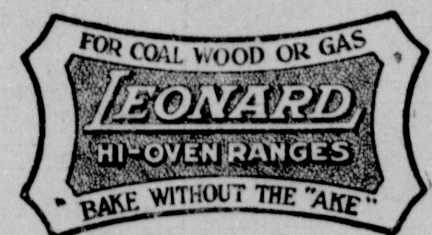

A desire was expressed by the members to "do our bit" in the Red Cross work, and a vote was taken to this effect and carried. This society will receive instructions from those in the Red Cross work in Jacksonville, so that we will be able to take up work at the July meeting, if possible.

Mrs. Nickolas and daughter, Margaret, proved themselves clever hostesses, for every body enjoyed the meeting. Refreshments were served at 4 o'clock, the offering being taken and the meeting closed.

Mr. Wall Mason and daughter, Bertha, of Maple View, Gold avenue, Grace Chapel neighborhood, were calling on friends in Literberry Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. E. Underbrink and daughter, Mildred were callers at Sunshine Cottage, Friday evening. About five auto cars from Literberry drove to Beardstown Sunday afternoon to see the river.

E. T. Craig of Woodson was trading with local merchants yesterday.

You can take the "ake" out of bake by using a modern and convenient Leonard Hi-Oven Range. No stooping required. No more backaches as all work done in an easy upright position. Compare this with the old way—the low oven way. Isn't very pleasant is it?

NO PRIZES FOR GOLF WINNERS

St. Joseph, Mo., June 18.—A number of leading golfers of the West, representing clubs in the territory
lying between the Mississippi River and Salt Lake City, are entered in the annual tournament of the Trans-Mississippi Golf Association which takes place this week on the links
of the St. Joseph Country Club. The number of high class players on hand for the opening today is believed to assure a successful tournament, notwithstanding the fact that the war has prevented some of the clubs belonging to the association from sending in their entries. By decision of the directors of the association no cups or medals will be awarded to the winners of the tournament. The money that ordinarily would have been expended for trophies will be devoted to some patriotic purpose.

Columbus, O., June.—Joe Tinker,
president and manager of the Columbus club of the American association is to become a boxing promoter. Tinker has signed Bryan Downey, a Columbus welterweight, and Ted Lewis, champion of the British championship, to box here July 4. The contest will be decided in the Columbus baseball park.

INTERESTING NEWS
OF THE SPORT WORLD

(By Associated Press.)

Detroit, June.—"Silk" O'Laugh-
lin, the American league umpire, grew reminiscent, while in Detroit recently. For the benefit of newspaper friends, the noted arbitrator,
who has been umpiring for 21 years,
figured that he had made 433,660
decisions in that time, and he says—
He never made a mistake.

O'Laughlin often has declared that his error column is still unstained
but he has not been anxious to discuss the subject. This, however, is what he said:
"I never made a mistake. And if I did, I would be an idiot to tell it.
There are lots of times when the ideas of fans, as well as the athletes, differ from mine. But I know I am right because what I say sticks."

O'Laughlin figures that in the 13 years he worked under the old single umpire system, he made 312,000
decisions and that since then he has made 121,660 plays. He bases his calculations on the normal number of decisions usually made in a game.

Minneapolis, June.—Continuance of athletics by Minnesota colleges next fall is assured. Representatives of the four leading colleges—Hamline, St. Thomas, Carleton and Macalester—voted not to abandon athletics even though the country is at war. All plan, however, to have military drill.

Milwaukee, June.—Dick Loadman,
a Pittsburgh bantamweight is under indefinite suspension in Wisconsin
as a result of his failure to appear before the state athletic commission to explain an alleged violation of a contract with a Milwaukee club. He will not be permitted to box in the state until the situation is adjusted.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June.—Co-eds
of the University of Michigan have not abandoned their athletics because of the war. When the varsity baseball team cancelled its games for this season, the young women took up the sport and, it is said, they are playing regular games. Of course, men are barred from the field.

Miss Laura Peacock, of Detroit,
has been elected captain of the freshmen girls' team and Miss Jessie Saunders, also of Detroit, was chosen to lead the juniors. Miss Peacock is the pitching mainstay of her club.

Cincinnati, June.—Although Pitcher Fred Toney of the Cincinnati Nationals is suffering from a mild attack of appendicitis, he will not undergo an operation until the end of the baseball season. Dr. Harry Hines, the club's physician, said an immediate operation was not necessary.

The larger amounts served to the adults would easily meet their needs. It is of vital importance that the child or adolescent youth receive foods which build bone and tissue. Without this a child will not develop a strong body, a primary requisite of a good citizen.

One of the cheapest foods we have as well as the most complete, is milk. The child under eight needs a quart of milk per day. This combined with vegetables, fruit and cereals will supply all his needs. The amount of milk called for in these meals may seem an unusual amount to some housekeepers, but it is cheaper than other foods of the same caloric value.

The thrifty family will be able to supply the fresh vegetables from their own garden. This will considerably lessen the cost of the meals because the market value is allowed for everything. Another means of reducing cost would be to use oleomargarine in place of butter and skimmed milk for cooking purposes. Where fresh milk is not procurable condensed milk may be used, but the fresh is cheaper and preferable. Save all meat drippings for fat.

Rise under ordinary conditions is a more expensive food than potatoes. Consequently, as soon as potatoes become plentiful these menus would not be as economical as they are now. It will aid greatly in the distribution of food stuffs if housekeepers will use as far as possible those foods which are grown in their vicinity. The cost and difficulties of transportation under war conditions makes this an important factor.

COTTAGE CHEESE

Cottage cheese is one of the important meat substitutes, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. It contains a larger percentage of protein (the chief material for body building) than most meats and furnishes this material at a lower cost. In every pound of cottage cheese there is about one-fifth of a pound of protein, nearly all of which is digestible. Meats, on the other hand, usually contain less protein and besides have a certain waste, such as bone and other inedible material. A pound of cottage cheese daily would supply all the protein required by the ordinary adult engaged in a sedentary occupation.

The following table shows that cottage cheese is much cheaper than most meats in furnishing the protein for the diet.

For supplying protein, one pound of cottage cheese equals:

1.27 pounds sirloin steak.
1.09 " round steak.
1.37 " chuck rib beef.
1.52 " fowl.
1.46 " fresh ham.
1.44 " smoked ham.
1.58 " loin pork chop.
1.31 " hind leg of lamb.
1.37 " breast of veal.

In addition to protein, energy for performing body work must be furnished by food. As a source of energy also, cottage cheese is cheaper than most meats at present prices. The following table shows the comparison when energy is considered.

On the basis of energy supplied, one pound of cottage cheese equals:

8 1-3 ounces sirloin steak.
11 1-4 " round steak.
11 1-4 " chuck rib beef.
10 3-4 " fowl.
5 1-2 " fresh ham.
5 " smoked ham.
6 " loin pork chop.
7 1-3 " hind leg of lamb.
12 3-4 " breast of veal.

ONE WHO WON'T BE HELD BACK

(By Charles J. Rosebault of the Vigilantes)

He was an unusually willing and helpful salesman. Of his own volition he suggested that the shoe, respecting which I was doubtful, was a little short in the vamp and did not properly follow the outlines of the foot. Three times he descended to the basement and twice he climbed up to the gallery around the upper part of the shop. I could see him there opening many boxes and examining their contents with great care before he selected what he thought would be best suited. He was blond, with an upstanding pompadour of closely curled hair, blue-eyed, and keenly alert. I could see that he was the type of young man that concentrates upon his work and I was satisfied that he would win promotion. In ten years at the most he would have a shop of his own. He was the sort that must be his own boss. With the opportunities for the industrious obliging merchant which New York offers he would have success—plenty of it.

I suggested something of the sort—just to show that I appreciated his attention.

"Maybe," he answered calmly. "Just now I am looking for a different job."

"What?" I asked.

"I was in the Navy—spent four years there, three on the Concord and one in the Quartermaster's Department. That's where I learned the shoe business."

"You could be of service now, certainly," I observed.

"That's what I've been thinking," he replied with a smile. "If it was not for my lungs—fact is, I've just got back from a sanitarium."

"That would put you out of, of course," I agreed.

"I won't let it," he returned, with a determined look in his eyes. "They wouldn't take me when I tried to enlist the other day—I'm just too old to be drafted—but they said they might, if I got stronger. I will, for I am taking good care of myself."

There was a momentary pause, while he assured himself that he had found the perfect fit.

"A lot of young men haven't learned to look at things right," he remarked seriously. "We've got only one life to live. What is the difference whether you die in bed, in a street accident or on the battlefield? It makes a big difference to whether you're doing what you think you ought to when your time comes."

"I see you're bound to get in," I observed as I paid my bill.

"I'm going back to my pals," he returned with a glint in the blue eyes. "I wouldn't feel comfortable if I didn't."

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Tollie Snyderman, a New York musical prodigy, eight years old, who has lately engaged the attention of the foremost musical critics of the metropolis, belongs to a family so poor that they could not give the child a real piano. She acquired her marvelous technique by doing most of her practicing, her fingering exercises and studies in tempo, phrasing and expression on a dummy keyboard marked off the edge of her mother's kitchen table, with the music propped up in front of her and humming the melody as she played. Now, Tollie has given a recital and become a celebrity, and has a real piano besides to play on.

Miss Beulah Amidon of Fargo, N. D., one of the youngest of nationally known suffrage workers, is a political pupil of Congresswoman Jeannette Rankin of Montana. Miss Amidon is only 22 years old. Miss Rankin spoke in the North Dakota suffrage campaign of 1913 and commanded the services of the 19-year old daughter of United States District Judge Charles F. Amidon of Fargo as her first assistant on a state-wide tour. This was Miss Amidon's debut, and it was marked by the passing of the suffrage referendum by the North Dakota legislature. She then started an energetic campaign of her own for the amendment's adoption by the voters. Between suffrage campaigns she attended Barnard College, New York, and there assisted in the New York suffrage campaign. Later she was in charge of the National Woman's party in Southern California, and at the present is touring the principal cities of Minnesota speaking in favor of suffrage.

At the marriage Saturday of their second daughter Miss Frances Morgan to Paul Geddes Pennoyer of California, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan announced the engagement of their older daughter, Miss Jane Morgan, to George Nichols of New York and Oyster Bay. Miss Morgan, who was a great favorite of her famous grandfather, is 21 years old. Like her distinguished aunt, Miss Anne Morgan, she is an enthusiastic philanthropist. She has done her bit abroad in work in war zone hospitals, sailing as late as last September to engage in war work in the hospital maintained by Miss Anne Morgan at Versailles, near Paris.

Dr. Yamei Kin, the only Chinese woman graduate of an American medical college, has sailed for the Orient to gather data on the soy bean and its value as a nutritive food, for the Department of Agriculture at Washington. This is the first time that a United States Department has given so much authority to a Chinese and the fact that it is a woman makes it doubly interesting. Dr. Kin is a graduate of the Woman's Medical College of New York, and an authority in her country on domestic sanitation and questions of nutrition, besides being an energetic worker for the development of civic hygiene in China. She is the head of the Imperial Peking Woman's Medical School and Hospital, near Peking, which sends out District nurses to Chinese slums to teach the people right living. The Imperial Infant Asylum in Tien-Tsin, the Widow's Home, and the Girls' Refuge all come under her supervision as head of the woman's hospital work in Northern China. She makes frequent sojourns in this country to familiarize herself with all the latest American method and discoveries in hygiene. She will return to America in October, bringing to our Government the detailed results of her study of the uses of the soy bean as a foodstuff, needed by this country and by the world in the campaign of food raising and conservation.

Washington is faced by a war-time situation no other city in the United States is called upon to face, and that is the problem of housing the 10,000 clerical employees, mostly young unmarried women, expected to be added to the city's population before autumn as a result of the vastly increased activities of several departments. It will be possible to build barracks for male clerical employees, but the general opinion is that young women cannot be herded into barracks. The occasion therefore offers for well-to-do women of the capital to do their bit in a novel way, and that by "taking in boarders" the family finances do not call for it. An energetic campaign has already been started in the capital to meet the problem in this way, headed by the wives of ministers, who already have placed rooms at the disposal of their homes of the young women now pouring into the city to take up clerical war work.

BEER RATIONING IN ENGLAND

London, June.—Beer rationing has set in in earnest in the south of England, particularly in the country villages near the big military camps. Saloonkeepers are now receiving only a proportion of their former supply, and are being kept severely down in spirituous liquors. During the weekend, there are now many South-of-England villages where not a drop of spirits may be had.

London is affected in patches. The most famous eating house in the Strand will only serve half a pint of beer to each customer at lunch or dinner. Several saloons in the center of the city have had to go for two or three days without beer, and one license holder applied to the licensing board to find out if it would jeopardize his license if he closed up his cafe for a few days, as he had no beer to sell, and could obtain no further supplies for nearly a week.

SEEK CHINESE LABORERS

Melbourne, Australia, June.—Sugar planters in Fiji are anxious to secure Chinese labor in large quantities as the government of India has withdrawn all the coolie labor formerly employed.

LEARNS TAILOR'S TRADE
IN GERMAN PRISON

French Senator Imprisoned for Refusal to Work for Benefit of Invading Troops—Makes First Appearance in Senate Since 1914.

Paris, June.—(Correspondence)—Auguste Potie, an important brick manufacturer, senator from the department of the Nord and Mayor of Haubourdin, has just made his first appearance in the senate since the spring of 1914 and announced to his colleagues that he had in the meantime learned the trade of tailor in a German prison.

Senator Potie was sent to prison in July, 1915, for having reminded the commanding officer of the occupying forces, who happened to be a Greek officer in the service of Germany, that article 52 of the Hague convention was contrary to the forced employment of the inhabitants of invaded districts on work of a military nature for the benefit of the invaders.

Haubourdin is only three miles from the battlefield and the inhabitants were called upon for all sorts of service, burdened with excessive requisitions and loaded with fines and vexations of all sorts.

Ten young girls in the Saint Augustin orphan asylum at Haubourdin had been ordered by the Germans to make burlap sacks. When they learned that the sacks were to be filled with sand and used as ramparts against the French they refused to work. M. Cordonnier, director of the flax mill from which was requisitioned the material to make the sacks was held responsible for the strike, and on his refusal to undertake the manufacture of the sacks was fined 1,000 francs and held as hostage until the work should be resumed.

Captain Argyropoulos, the Greek officers in command, then summoned Monsieur Potie to furnish the sacks. He refused. The German commander fined him 1,000 francs while most severe measures were taken against the entire population. Subsequently M. Potie and M. Cordonnier were both fined 500 francs by General Krug von Nida, commanding the 24th division at Lambersart. A few days later, after he had posted a letter invoking the Hague treaty, Senator Potie was arrested. Both he and M. Cordonnier were condemned without having appeared before any tribunal to pay fines of 5,000 francs and to serve one year in prison, the terms of prison to be increased eleven months in default of payment of the fines. Confined at Loos, then at Aix-la-Chapelle and Cologne, they were finally taken to the prison of Siegburg. There their heads were shaved; they were clothed in prison garb, and were obliged to set to learning the tailoring trade.

Both were released in September, 1915, informed that their penalties had been reduced to six weeks. Last year Senator Potie was sent back to Haubourdin without explanation. Senator Potie refused to resume his functions as mayor, replying to the Germans that after having been imprisoned with convicts his dignity as a Frenchman prevented him from resuming the functions of Mayor so long as the town was occupied by the Germans.

M. Cordonnier, who is nearly seventy, is still a prisoner of the Germans.

NUMEROUS TRIALS
BROUGHT SUCCESSTanlac Gave Relief After
Many Medicines Failed,
Bridgman Says

Columbus C. Bridgman, prominent farmer residing at Chapin, Ill., near here, made the following statement on June 13 regarding the remarkable relief he derived through use of Tanlac, the celebrated new medicine:

"I was bothered all last winter with my stomach and although I tried many different medicine, I failed to gain any relief. Headaches bothered me almost continually and I often experienced severe pains in my stomach. I was usually in a constipated condition.

"The statement of so many local people praising Tanlac finally led me to try the new medicine. Well sir, I've taken just one bottle of Tanlac now and honestly, I don't know what it is to be bothered with my stomach and more. The headache have ceased to annoy me, too. The constipation, also, has vanished. I'm very glad to recommend Tanlac and I hope others will begin the use of the new medicine."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like. Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co., East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co., in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's; in Versailles at A. G. Bates'; in Chapin at F. P. McKinney's; in Roodhouse at W. D. Berry's; in White Hall at the City Drug store; in Bluff at F. T. Curtis'; and in Pittsfield at J. H. Barber & Co.

Keeping the gums healthy and the mouth sweet is very important to health; more teeth are lost through the loosening of the tissue that holds the teeth in place than from decay.

Dental science to-day demands that a tooth paste must keep the gums healthy as well as clean the teeth.

Senreco was formulated to meet this requirement. Hundreds of dentists are prescribing and using Senreco because they have found that it does measure up to that standard.

SENRECO IS A WONDERFUL CLEANSER.

In addition to its remedial properties Senreco is a wonderful cleanser: acts directly on the mucin film, the basis of tartar; leaves the mouth cool and clean-feeling. As some one has expressed it—Senreco gives one a new idea on mouth cleanliness.

Get a tube to-day at your druggists or toilet counter—enjoy the healthy, cleanly feeling it uses gives your mouth and gums. Notice how brilliantly white Senreco makes your teeth. It performs this two-fold service for you and yet costs no more than the ordinary, old-fashioned tooth paste that simply cleans the teeth and leaves a pleasant taste—25 cents for a large 2 ounce tube.

DANGERS REAL AND FANCIED.

The average woman will scream with terror at the sight of an innocent little mouse, and then complacently sit down and suffer in silence with diseases that are destroying her youth, her beauty, her very life. She will unconsciously resign herself to the woes and miseries of female troubles, which are to be dreaded a thousand times more than a tiny mouse. It is gratifying to know that untold numbers of women are being restored to perfect vigor and strength by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures all uterine disorders. The exact name of the disease doesn't amount to a row of pins. It is in the womanly organs. "Favorite Prescription" will hunt it out and cure it. It can be a drain, a pain, an inflammation, an irregularity or a weakness, and this medicine will act directly upon it, and restore the organs to perfectly healthy action. It prepares the girl to become a woman, the wife to become a mother, the middle-aged to pass the "turn of life" in safety. It is not a "cure-all" but a medicine for women only, and is the prescription of Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., the world-famed specialist in the treatment of disorders of women. Any reader of this paper may consult Dr. Pierce free by mail.

A DIFFERENT WOMAN.

Jacksonville, Ill.—"I have used Dr. Pierce's medicine which I took for female trouble. I used three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription.' When I got through taking it I was a different woman; I felt fine." Mrs. S. H. McCausland, 322 W. North St.

WOMAN NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH

What Came From Reading a Pinkham Advertisement.

Paterson, N. J.—"I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me well and healthy. Some time ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating, and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the above said ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles as they did me." ### BILL PROVIDES CHANGES IN ELECTION SYSTEM

Franchise Reform Measure Now Before English Parliament—Is Result of Investigations By a Royal Commission Covering Period of Ten Years.

London, June 18.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Sweeping changes in the election system in this country are provided for in a bill before Parliament. Proportional representation which aims to give all elements a larger voice in the government, the granting of the vote to women more than thirty years old and giving the franchise to all soldiers and sailors are the outstanding features of the measure.

This new franchise reform bill, officially known as the Representation of the People Bill, is to a large extent the result of investigations conducted over a period of nearly ten years by a royal commission appointed "to examine the various schemes which have been adopted or proposed in order to secure a fully representative character for popularly elected legislative bodies." Here are some of the provisions of the bill now before Parliament.

Men of 21 years and over to have a vote on the basis of six months' residence or occupation of business premises. An elector may have two votes and no more—one for residence in one constituency and one business premises, of the value of £10 a year, in another.

Any woman of thirty years old who is entitled to vote at the municipal elections, or is the wife of any man who is entitled to vote at such election, is to be entitled to vote in the national elections for members of parliament.

Soldiers and sailors of legal age to be qualified to vote in the area in which they ordinarily reside.

Half-yearly revision of the national voting list and all elections for Parliament to be held on the same day.

Proportional representation in extensive urban areas, and redistribution of seats on a basis of population.

One member of Parliament for every 70,000 of the population. No member for a town under 50,000.

The provisions of the women's suffrage and proportional representation clauses are left for final decision by the House of Commons; they may be modified as suits the judgment of the majority of the members.

The proportional representation feature of the bill has attracted most attention here. It provides for many changes in the system of representation, chief of which perhaps is that it gives the constituents of defeated candidates for member of Parliament in a three-cornered fight actual representation in the government. The system had been in force in Belgium for twenty years before the war and has just been adopted in Holland.

Here is an example of the system which the reform remedies: In a district having 5,000 registered voters there are three candidates for one vacant seat. Suppose that candidate A polls 2,000 votes, candidate B polls 1,800 votes and candidate C polls 1,200 votes; while 3,000 voters have signified their unwillingness to have him as their representative.

To prevent this return of plurality candidates it is proposed to introduce the alternative vote into the nation's electoral system. Instead of putting a cross (x) on the ballot against the name of the candidate he prefers, the voter, under the system of the alternative vote, would place the unmarked numeral 2 against the name and the numeral 2 against the name of the candidate who came next in his choice. When the votes were counted those marked 1 would be added for each candidate in the first place, and if the candidate would be declared to be duly elected.

But if the addition of the first choice votes did not give an absolute majority for any candidate, then the following procedure would be adopted: The candidate at the bottom of the poll would be declared defeated, and his name eliminated but his ballot papers would be re-examined, and the votes transferred to the second choice as marked on those papers. If after the transfer of such votes some candidate had an absolute majority, he would be declared elected. If not, the candidate left at the bottom of the poll by the first elimination would be declared defeated and his votes transferred to the second choice. This process would continue until one of the candidates had an absolute majority. In this way the alternative vote would secure the advantage not only of a second ballot, but of successive ballots should they be required.

All of the customary social functions were cancelled. The few seniors left marched in procession to Webster Hall, where simple exercises accompanied the bestowal of the sheepskins.
